

The Bendy Monsters

It's
That
Band
Again!

No. 3

My Favourite!

The Generator Club
Sunday 7th June
1992

"We slept with Chas 'n' Daves' wives!" boast the Bendy Monsters. After a recent gig in the capital, the band met up with the ladies on their weekly girls night out. "It's great!" recalled bendy guitarist Dom, "First they pay for all yer beer, then it's back to the house for rampant horny sex!".

Back in Sheffield on 7th June, the Bendies play the Palais with Brighton's 'Machine Gun Feedback' and locals 'The Tea Stains'.

The new demo will now be on sale at £1.50 together with special priced T-shirts. You can also catch the band at the Hallamshire on 9th July and at Chas 'n' Daves, London on 12th July!

Trace on smoking.

"I smoke 'em because my name's on 'em."

It's Cuffy I am!

NO YOU NOT, YOU'RE BERNARD CRIBBENS, I'VE SEEN YOU IN THINGS BEFORE.

ALBUM REVUE

Pat Hancock - 1985 French Oral

Truly one of the great albums of all time. From the raucously chaotic "Asking the way" to the tiresomely slow "Booking a hotel room", this new mini LP is literally bursting with 'Faux Pas' & 'Oh Shits', sprinkled with a 'Zut Alors!' topping.

The album's undoubted highlight must be "Ordering a meal", where the literal misunderstanding of a Croque Monsieur has to be heard to be believed!

Henry McGee

Working with Benny Hill wasn't particularly enthralling. The only comic genius I've ever worked with was the Honey Monster!

KNOW YOUR OWN SUPERMARKET

We all know that shopping can be a tiresome task. There seem so many different brands, doesn't there? But don't despair, The Bendy Monsters guide to supermarket shopping will save you pounds!!

1. Always go to the cheaper shops. Here, you'll often find out of date stock, often at discount prices.
2. Don't be put off by any stock which has been damaged in a fire. Far from ruining the product, the added heat acts as a useful preserving component.
3. Ignore all talk of E numbers. They're all in the mind!
4. You can often save money by buying sweetcorn in bulk. One vanload can mean a reduction of over 20%.
5. Why not take lessons in Iraq? Having completed your course, you'll be able to widen your options in the catfood field.
6. Eat as much as you possibly can. When you're lying on your deathbed, you'll wish you had.
7. Return used spaghetti cans to the shop in large brown containers. See how they react!
8. Fool the authorities. Tell them you bought a sheet of plate glass with baby food on it.
9. Cunningly steal a Tesco supermarket trolley in your spare time. You could decorate it and turn it into Bodeceas Chariot. Then ring up Pauline Quirke and her to help you steer the bastard!
10. Phone Robert John Godfrey from 'The Enid' at 4 o'clock in the morning on New Years Day, preceded by slurring and throwing in the odd high pitched wine for added effect.
11. Why not write to Diana Rigg? (I did!)

Top 10 'Foods of the Year'

1. Smoke damaged yoghurts
2. Spaghetti Motorbikes (in tomato revs)
3. Blackpool pier lager (brewed by Mike Moran on the North Pier Jetty)
4. Nippon Ant Killer (always comes in useful)
5. That cheese that they don't make anymore (they do!)
6. Bray Leuropes no.1 Donkey Food
7. Fruitti-Birdi - fruit cocktail miniatures for cagebirds. Finland's finest.
8. Millwall FC Beer. As recommended by Danny Bakerstein and Rabbi Nicky Chatterton
9. Jimmy Jackson Xmas Hamper (packed with crap!)
10. Mr Onionlegs (lolly for weird kids!)

PAULINE QUIRKE IN A GRIT-WAGON

Hurricane Davy's been pulling my trees up,
but I was dancing the night away at
Chas 'n' Dave's knees up.
Captain Courageous, I just had to collide,
with the grit-wagon guru on the M25.

The shirt said hot, the label said not,
a bloodstained collar and pilau on my face.
Pauline Quirke's in a grit-truck,
she's losing it now.

PAULINE QUIRKE

Pauline stops to chat to a neighbour,
he says he's a vent with a nautical flavour.
And what do you intend to do when you're bigger?
I'll be driving some sort of industrial digger.

A brat shouts no when he sees the snow,
Adam Ants dad takes the ferry to Amsterdam,
Pauline Quirke's in a grit-truck,
she's losing it now.

Certain relations were well out of order,
when messing around with their new camrecorder.
Why do you sent it to Jeremy Beadle,
I've sent all my pictures to Hart, Lunn and Keyserl.

A sitcom dies and your Benelin eyes,
Lit up in the night like the lights in Hattletown.
Pauline Quirke's in a grit-truck,
she's losing it now.

ALBERT DRYDEN'S ADVICE COLUMN

Dear Albert,
I am building an extension to the rear of my property, but next door has a right of way across where I wish to build. The neighbours agree to the plans, but the council have refused me planning permission to build. What should I do?

Arthur Wondermash, Newcastle.

ALBERT SAYS
Tricky one this!
Goov doon t'local council planning
office and shoot 'em all, yeah,
kill, shoot, shoot, shoot!

THE BOYS ARE BACK IN TOWN!

Yes, the Bendies will be back
at the Hallamshire on Thursday
9th July with Sheffield's own version of the Carry-On Team,
The Protectors, and those equally
'saucey' chaps, ED 209.
SEE YOU THERE!!!

KIDS WE WENT TO SCHOOL WITH

- 1. BILL
Small inept character who when asked what he wanted to do when he grew up replied, "Hang around in Corals with mi brother waiting for the Catford dog results, before settling down at William Hill's for an afternoon of 3rd rate hurdle racing from Wolverhampton".
- 2. WAYNE JACOBS
Outstanding schoolboy soccer prospect who achieved fame and fortune playing full-back for Hull City.
- 3. HAMSTER JOHN (AKA FRANK)
Last heard to have left the GPO in mysterious circumstances, dope found amongst mailbags?
- 4. DAVID ASHTON
Gangly individual who progressed from playground ape noises to 100MPH bingo at the awesome Woodhouse West End Working Mens Club.
- 5. BEZ
Ex-Bendy Monsters drummer who recently departed to enjoy life 'hanging around Handsworth shops'.
- 6. WRAGGY
No stranger to playground stunts such as forcing a rubber up his left nostril. Also rushed to hospital after swallowing a pen.
- 7. ANGELA HILL
Issued with a challenge from God - pregnant at 16, now revive thy career!
- 8. NICHOLAS MINOTT
Landed prestigious christmas job at Wickes in santa's grotto as the leader of elves.
- 9. GIPPO JANE
Picked up remnants of a crumbling life. Dragged mother up to school, unimpressed by our cruel jibes.
